Helping Refugees, Transforming Lives

Dear

Being a refugee is not forever...

Becoming a refugee is a terrible experience – one that people want to move on from as quickly as possible. To do so, they need some basic things that others usually take for granted – political and religious freedom, security, a place to call home, opportunities for themselves and their families, a decent lifestyle, social acceptance and access to services.

ARA is here to help refugees escape the misery of the past and grasp the opportunities for new lives in Australia. However, we need your support to continue doing this. The following are some examples of what your donation could do.

- $50 to deliver second hand furniture to a family
- $100 to get into a course needed for a job
- $75 for equipment and clothing for work
- $100 for school stationery
- $300 for a home work club for a high school student
- $20 for a “drop in” service for a refugee
- $250 for social work intervention for a family in crisis.

I am appealing for your help, so that we can provide practical timely help to refugees in need.

Please be generous.
